Thanks a great class of September, 1958 — a young and enthusiastic man with twinkling eyes and a crooked smile becomes a teacher in the history department at Melrose High School.

Spring 1970 — There's an opening for an assistant principalship in the high school . . . in typically Crostonian fashion, the man who seemed a permanent member of the history department, moves into his new office. . . . "Behold the turtle who only makes progress when he sticks his neck out."

September 1970 — Fate drops double sessions onto Melrose Junior and Senior High Schools. Claude Croston is deposed to the Junior High where he promptly becomes fond of the Class of '75.

September 1971 — Another year to weather. And then, as the Class of '75 heads toward high school . . . "I'm goin' right up the ladder with you, you're my babies!"

September 1972 — Everyone watches breathlessly as the new high school grows inch by inch and the Class of '75 prays to be its first graduating class. "Tomorrow and tomorrow and tomorrow"

September 1973 — Lines of tardy students pour out of Mr. Croston's office and down the hall. "Why do the juniors always have to stay after?" . . . "I don't care if it's 7:00 a.m. or 12 midnight — get on that phone and call your mother!" . . . "I didn't mean to yell at you, but . . . "July 1974 — MR. CROSTON NAMED PRINCIPAL

"Ain't it good to know you've got a friend?"

September 4, 1974 Senior Assembly —. . . You're gonna be happy. I don't want anymore of this snob baloney, we're gonna be like one big happy family! Do you understand me? I want happy kids!! There are gonna be some changes made around here! I don't want just a good high school, I want the best high school in the WORLD!!!!! And I want you to be the best class in the world!!!!!

"And in between what might have been
And what has come to pass,
I misbegotten guess alas
and bits of broken glass"

"I've been searching for my dream
One hundred times today
I build them up, you knock them down
Like they were made of clay."

"Then the tide rushes in Ind washes my castles away and I'm really not so sure On which side of the bed I should lay."

SOCCER

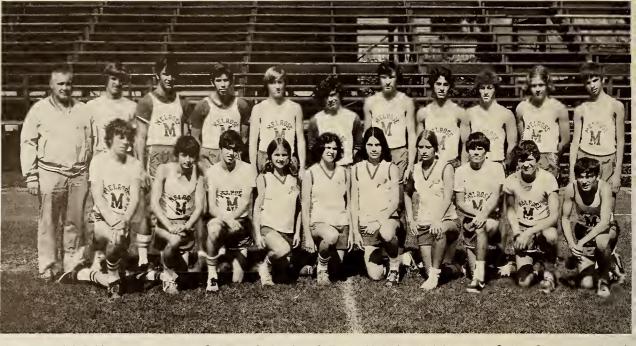

After a few years of struggle, the saccer team has finally captured an honorable position amoung M.H.S. sparts. Captained by Ted Baier, Chris DeChristapher, and Paul Laverty, this year's varsity baaters campleted their most successful seosan in M.H.S. soccer history. The talent and spirit af the team led them to a fine recard of 9 wins, 5 lasses, and 2 ties. The narrow loss af only one game prevented them from qualifying for state campetitian. Highlights af the seasan were the exciting 2-1 last secand victory aver Lexington, and the two wins against Winchester. The enthusiasm of Larry Applegate wan him the team's award far mast spirited ployer, Mike O'Hora, high scarer for the year was duly credited with this title, and Paul Laverty was honared as being mast valuable player.

Melrose High has always taken great pride in its hockey trodition. This year's version has left nothing to be desired, for the Raiders combined to produce superb team and individual efforts. Led by Tri-Captains Mike O'Hara, Ted Baier, and Roger Conway, the team compiled a 14-2-2 seoson record which ranked them second in the Middlesex League and qualified them for the State Tournament. The tremendous contributions of five team-motes caused them to be named as League All-Stars, including Brian Hughes, the high scorer with 38 points. The seoson started with a six game unbeaten streak and was marred only by the two losses to Burlington and Winchester. The most outstanding game was against Woburn, in which the Raiders exploded for two last minute gools to tie the game 4-4. The team scored 100 goals in all, on usual feat for which they are to be highly commended.

For the ninth straight year, the M.H.S. Wrestling team captured the Middlesex League Title. The Raiders dominated the league with an impressive 7-0 league record, helped by outstanding performances by Co-Captains Joe Rooney and Tom Cerretani. The team's talent was especially evident in the sectionals when Tom Cerretani, Andy Campbell, Joe Rooney, Bob Skane, and Peter Baldi all took firsts, Bob Dudley and Frank LoPilato took seconds and Tim Lamson a third; enabling the grapplers to gain their second straight Sectional Title.

BOYS' BASKETBALL

Led by outstanding Co-Coptoins Don Chiuve ond Bill Killileo, the 1975 Boys' Basketboll teom hod o fine year with o 12-7 record. Adding to o gaad season, and much ta everyone's surprise, the teom qualified far the State Tournoment. The big three, Don Chiuve, Bill Killileo and Pot Stantan corried the teom throughout the entire season. Dan finished the year fifth leading scorer in the league while Bill finished third. Assistant Coptoin, Pot Stantan, contributed excellent ball handling. Also proving to be impartant keys to the teom's success were Ken Charlton, John Jocabson, and Neol Jones. Jeff Smith and Kevin Poge sow ploying time as substitutes.

Congrotulations to this year's team for a season that will long be remembered.

The M.H.S. Swim teom hos been on top for the post seven seosons, holding the title of Leogue Chomps. This seoson their record wos not os impressive os previous seosons. They were, however, persistont in their enthusiom, hord work, ond determination throughout the entire seoson. The LOG wishes good luck to the teom next year and to the outgoing seniors Scott Hoyword, Dovid O'Connell, Don Glynn, Liz Shonklin, and Co-Coptoins Alice Borber and Chorlie Gill.

WINTER TRACK

. . . There ore few teams that con foce snow, slush, and freezing temperatures and still do well. But thanks to super spirit and unending determination, the Melrose Winter Track team finished with a record of 7-2, placing third in the league. The season was highlighted by the defeat of their arch-rival, the formerly invincible Wakefield. And to add a lost feather to their cop — Hol Moulton, Bruce Wenner, and Tony Maccorio all placed fifth in the State Meet.

Once again the M.H.S. Glee Club has demanstrated their talent in many ways. Their exciting seasan included caraling, their annual December party at the Heritage Hame, and the traditional Christmas Vespers. This year, far the first time ever, the Glee Club spansared a talent shaw in which various clubs displayed their versatility through skits, pantamimes, and sangs. The year ended with the Glee Club's Annual Spring Cancert. . .naturally a success, thanks ta Rager Gagnan.

ORCHESTRA

As every year, the M.H.S. Girls Club spansored their annual Pawderpuff football game. T.R., the cheerleader measuring 55-32-32, and the rest of his . . . opps . . . her cheering squad, entertained the crowd with their version of M.H.S. cheers while the girls frontically tried to remember their plays.

GIRLS' CLUB

The Girls' Club af Melrase High, although getting a slaw start at the beginning of the year, came on strang realizing this year is their 50th anniversary. The Pawder Puff game, which raised the most money ever tawards the Schalarship Fund, was a great start to this year's events. The Mother-Daughter Christmas Tea brought back memories as Mr. McPheters, original founder of the Girls' Club, entertained everyane with his stories and paems. What better way to end the year than a banquet celebrating the clubs' 50th anniversary.

Non-Jocks: Unite

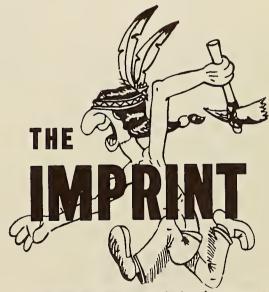

The purpose of this editorial is not to put down the jocks in this school, hut to reassure the non-jock population that they are not alone.

There exists at MHS certain myths about the aura of jockism which need dispelling. One is the image (circa 1952) that high school, and especially the senior year, are curious institutions created for cheerleaders and football stars. Unfortunately, some people have not yet realized that there is a group within the school which truly believes that there is more to life than pompoms and pigskin.

Myth number two — jocks are not as well loved as they think they are. True, they are popular, but within certain limits. Their popularity extends only to the periphery of their own cliques. Not everyone wants to be a jock. Other people have other interests which are just as important to them.

There is nothing wrong with playing foothall, and there is nothing wrong with cheerleading. The point is that the foothall team, the cheerleaders and their entire clique comprise a small percentage of the student population, which until now has received a high percentage of attention. It is high time that someone realized that heneath the facade of Jocksville, USA, there are some very real people at Melrose High School who do some very interesting things (hesides playing foothall and cheerleading.)

To expose in order to remedy, to praise in order to support—attacking neither personalities nor institutions but the evils which destroy them.

MAJORETTES

The Majorettes unmistokobly proved their talent throughout the footboll season. Under the leodership of Chris Murphy and Betsy Blocher ond the assistance of their advisor Judy Simpson, the routines odded an enlightening ond exhilerating dimension to halftime shows as well os rallies. Endless practices, front hall firsts, ond "Southern Mon" bus rides will never be forgotten.

WINTER BALL

A boat beneath a sunny
sky
Lingering onward dreamily
In an evening in July

Long has paled that sunny sky:

Echoes fade and Memories die:

Autumn frosts have slain July

Thus grew the tale of Wonderland:
Thus slowly, one by one,
Its quaint events were hammered out—

And now the tale is done, And home we steer, a merry crew,

Beneath the setting sun.

Is all our Life, then, but a dream
Seen faintly in the golden gleam
Athwart Time's dark resistless stream?

Bowed to the earth with bitter woe, Or laughing at some raree-show, We flutter idly to and fro.

Man's little Day in haste we spend, And, from its merry noontide, send No glance to meet the silent end. Lewis Carroll
